SERVICE SPECIFICATION
COMPREHENSIVE YOUTH PROGRAM
Service Code 197

SERVICE DEFINITION:

A comprehensive program combines at least three of the following services: Problem Solving/Cognitive Skills Development, Behavior Specific Education, Life Skills, Interpersonal Skills and/or Leisure Skills. This program provides youth instruction, skills training, and is educational in nature designed to target youth criminogenic risk and need factors while developing the skills necessary for youth to be effective in everyday situations and interact in a positive way with others.

The service may be provided in an individual and/or group setting. The contractor shall ensure low risk youth are not combined with medium and high risk youth in a group setting. The delinquency risk level is determined by the JOLTS/iCIS risk tool which is administered by the probation officer. Delinquency risk populations must be segregated as follows: Youth scoring low risk (0 to 0.50) and youth scoring medium/high risk (0.51 to 1.0). Additionally, consideration must be given to “group” youth according to their development stage (early, middle, late adolescence) and/or cognitive ability.

STANDARDS/LICENSURE REQUIREMENTS:

- This service does not require an agency or individual to hold a specific license.
- At a minimum, the service shall be provided by a person who is eighteen (18) years of age and has relevant education, experience and training to effectively deliver the service.

UNITS OF SERVICE:

The service may be proposed by the hour, class or program, depending upon its format and intended delivery structure.

SERVICE GOAL:

Assist youth in developing specific skill sets which reduce their likelihood of engagement in further delinquency and increase pro-social skills and involvement.

PROGRAM COMPONENT:

The program must consist of at least three of the following services. The Contractor shall deliver the service as identified on service specification for each service proposed:

Problem Solving/Cognitive Skills Development
Behavior Specific Education
Life Skills Development
