

Note

The complaint in this case was filed against a candidate for the office of justice of the peace who was running for the first time. Although all judicial candidates are subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct, the Commission on Judicial Conduct only has jurisdiction over incumbent judges. Therefore, no information is posted in this case.