Rule 4. Initial Appearance and Arraignment

Rule 4.2. Initial appearance

a. In General. At the suspect's initial appearance, the magistrate shall:

- (1) Ascertain the suspect's true name and address and, if necessary, amend the formal charges to reflect it, and instruct the suspect to notify the court promptly of any change of address;
- (2) Inform the defendant of the charges;
- (3) Inform the defendant of the right to counsel and the right to remain silent;
- (4) Determine whether probable cause exists for the purpose of release from custody. If no probable cause is found, the defendant shall immediately be released from custody;
- (5) Appoint counsel if the suspect is eligible for and requests appointed counsel under Rule 6;
- (6) Consider comments offered by the victim concerning the conditions of release. The magistrate shall permit the victim to comments, orally or in writing, on the issue of the suspect's release;
- (7) Determine the conditions of release in accordance with Rule 7.2, including whether the defendant is non-bailable pursuant to A.R.S. Const. Art. 2, § 22 and A.R.S. § 13-3961; and
- (8) For summoned defendants charged with a felony offense, a violation of Title 13, Chapter 14, or Title 28, Chapter 4, or a domestic violence offense as defined in § 13-3601 the court shall order that the defendant be fingerprinted at a designated time and place if it appears that the defendant was not previously fingerprinted.

b. Misdemeanors: Felonies Charged by Indictment. When a suspect charged with a misdemeanor or indicted for a felony is brought before a magistrate for defendant's initial appearance, defendant may, in addition to the procedures set forth in Section (a), be arraigned in the manner prescribed by Rule 14, if counsel is present or waived. If the appearance is before a magistrate without jurisdiction to try the offense, the magistrate shall transfer the case to the proper court for arraignment. If the court finds that delay of the arraignment is indispensable to the interests of justice, the court shall provide sufficient time for notice pursuant to Rule 39 (b) (2) when setting a date and time for the continued arraignment.

c. Felonies Charged by Complaint. When a suspect is charged in a complaint, the magistrate shall, in addition to the procedures required by Section (a);

(1) Inform the suspect of the right to a preliminary hearing and the procedures by which that right may be waived; and

(2) Unless waived, set the time for a preliminary hearing in accordance with Rule 5.1.

Rule 7. Release

Rule 7.2. Right to release

a. Before Conviction; Persons Charged With an Offense Bailable as a Matter of Right. Any person charged with an offense bailable as a matter of right shall be released pending or during trial on the person's own recognizance, unless the court determines, in its discretion, that such a release will not reasonably assure the person's appearance as required. If such a determination is made, the court may impose the least onerous condition or conditions contained in Rule 7.3 (b) which will reasonably assure the person's appearance.

b. Before Conviction; Persons Charged With an Offense Not Bailable as a Matter of Right. A person shall not be released on bail if the court finds the person is not bailable pursuant to A.R.S. Const. Art. 2, § 22 and A.R.S. § 13-3961. If the allegation involves A.R.S. § 13-3961(A)(5), the person shall not be considered bailable if the court finds (1) that the proof is evident or the presumption great that the person committed a serious offense, and (2) probable cause that the person entered or remained in the United States illegally.

c. After Conviction

(1) Superior Court. After a person has been convicted of any offense for which the person will in all reasonable probability suffer a sentence of imprisonment, the person shall not be released on bail or on ~~his or her~~ the person's own recognizance unless it is established that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the conviction may be set aside on a motion for new trial, reversed on appeal, or vacated in any post-conviction proceeding. The release of a person pending appeal shall be revoked if the person fails to prosecute the appeal diligently.

(2) Limited Jurisdiction Courts.

(A) Conditions of Release Upon Appeal. After a defendant has been convicted of any offense for which a sentence of incarceration has been imposed, upon filing of a timely notice of appeal, the defendant shall remain, pending appeal, under the same release conditions imposed at or subsequent to the time of the defendant's initial appearance or arraignment, except as provided in this subsection ~~(b)~~ (c) (2). The release of the defendant pending appeal shall be revoked if the defendant fails to prosecute the appeal diligently. A defendant held in custody pending appeal shall be released in the event the defendant's sentence is completed before the appeal has been decided.

(B) Motion to Amend Conditions of Release. Upon the filing of a timely notice of appeal, the state, or the court on its own motion, may move to amend the conditions of release when it appears there is a substantial risk that:

- (i) the defendant presents a danger to any person or the community; or
- (ii) the defendant is unlikely to return to court if subsequently ordered to appear on the particular matter.

(C) Hearing. The court shall set a hearing on such an application within three days of the filing of the motion. Such hearing may be continued for good cause shown. The defendant may be detained pending the hearing. At the hearing, which shall be on the record, the defendant is entitled to representation by counsel. Any testimony of the defendant shall not be admissible in other proceedings except as it may relate to compliance with prior conditions of release, perjury, or impeachment.

(D) Findings. Based on findings stated on the record, the court may amend the conditions of release in accordance with Rule 7.3. In determining the method of release or the amount of bail, the judicial officer shall, on the basis of available information, consider the nature and circumstances of the offense, family or local ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of residence in the community, the record of arrests, convictions, and appearances at court proceedings.

(E) Superior Court Review. If the trial court enters an order setting a bond or requiring incarceration while the appeal is taken, the defendant may petition the superior court, at any time after such order is entered, to stay the execution of sentence and to allow the defendant to be released without bond or to require a lower bond.

e d. Burden of Proof. Issues under Rules 7.2 (a) and ~~(b)~~ (c) shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence. The prosecutor shall bear the burden of establishing factual issues under Rule 7.2 (a), (b) and ~~(b)~~ (c) (2). ~~†~~The defendant shall bear the burden of establishing factual issues under Rule 7.2 (b) (c) (1).

Rule 7.4. Procedure

a. Initial Decision. At the initial appearance before a magistrate, a determination of the conditions of release shall be made. The court shall issue an order containing the conditions of release and shall inform the accused of the conditions, the possible consequences of their violation, and that a warrant for his or her arrest may be issued immediately upon report of a violation.

b. Subsequent Review of Conditions. Any ~~person remaining in custody~~ party may move for reexamination of the conditions of release whenever the ~~person's~~ case is transferred to a different court or the motion alleges the existence of material facts not previously presented to the court. The court may, on motion of ~~the defendant~~ any party, or on its own initiative, modify the conditions of release after giving the parties an opportunity to respond to the proposed modification. The motion shall comply with the requirements of this rule, Rule 35 and Rule 39. If the motion involves whether the person shall be held without bail, a hearing on the motion shall be held on the record as soon as practicable but not later than seven days after filing of the motion.

c. Evidence. Release determinations under this rule may be based on evidence not admissible under the rules of evidence.

d. Review of Bond. The court before which a misdemeanor is pending shall, no more than 10 days after arraignment, review the case file concerning the conditions of release of any defendant held in custody on bond for the purpose of determining the propriety of amending the conditions of release.

Rule 27.7. Initial appearance after arrest

When a probationer is arrested on a warrant issued under Rule 27.5 (b), his or her probation officer, if any, shall be notified immediately, and the probationer shall be taken without unreasonable delay before the court from which the warrant was issued, who shall advise the probationer of his or her rights to counsel under Rule 6, inform the probationer that any statement he or she makes prior to the hearing may be used against him or her, set the date of the revocation hearing, and make a release determination under Rule 7.2 ~~(b)~~ (c).

Rule 31.6. Stay of execution of sentence and credit pending appeal

A sentence of imprisonment shall be stayed pending appeal when the defendant is released in accordance with Rule 7.2 ~~(b)~~ (c). A defendant who remains in custody during the pendency of an appeal shall receive the same benefits as if no appeal has been taken.

A sentence to pay a fine or ~~restitution~~ shall be stayed pending appeal.

Rule 4. Initial Appearance and Arraignment

Rule 4.2. Initial appearance

a. In General. At the suspect's initial appearance, the magistrate shall:

- (1) Ascertain the suspect's true name and address and, if necessary, amend the formal charges to reflect it, and instruct the suspect to notify the court promptly of any change of address;
- (2) Inform the defendant of the charges;
- (3) Inform the defendant of the right to counsel and the right to remain silent;
- (4) Determine whether probable cause exists for the purpose of release from custody. If no probable cause is found, the defendant shall immediately be released from custody;
- (5) Appoint counsel if the suspect is eligible for and requests appointed counsel under Rule 6;
- (6) Consider comments offered by the victim concerning the conditions of release. The magistrate shall permit the victim to comments, orally or in writing, on the issue of the suspect's release;
- (7) Determine the conditions of release in accordance with Rule 7.2, including whether the defendant is non-bailable pursuant to A.R.S. Const. Art. 2, § 22 and A.R.S. § 13-3961; and
- (8) For summoned defendants charged with a felony offense, a violation of Title 13, Chapter 14, or Title 28, Chapter 4, or a domestic violence offense as defined in § 13-3601 the court shall order that the defendant be fingerprinted at a designated time and place if it appears that the defendant was not previously fingerprinted.

b. Misdemeanors: Felonies Charged by Indictment. When a suspect charged with a misdemeanor or indicted for a felony is brought before a magistrate for defendant's initial appearance, defendant may, in addition to the procedures set forth in Section (a), be arraigned in the manner prescribed by Rule 14, if counsel is present or waived. If the appearance is before a magistrate without jurisdiction to try the offense, the magistrate shall transfer the case to the proper court for arraignment. If the court finds that delay of the arraignment is indispensable to the interests of justice, the court shall provide sufficient time for notice pursuant to Rule 39 (b) (2) when setting a date and time for the continued arraignment.

c. Felonies Charged by Complaint. When a suspect is charged in a complaint, the magistrate shall, in addition to the procedures required by Section (a);

(1) Inform the suspect of the right to a preliminary hearing and the procedures by which that right may be waived; and

(2) Unless waived, set the time for a preliminary hearing in accordance with Rule 5.1.

Rule 7. Release

Rule 7.2. Right to release

a. Before Conviction; Persons Charged With an Offense Bailable as a Matter of Right. Any person charged with an offense bailable as a matter of right shall be released pending or during trial on the person's own recognizance, unless the court determines, in its discretion, that such a release will not reasonably assure the person's appearance as required. If such a determination is made, the court may impose the least onerous condition or conditions contained in Rule 7.3 (b) which will reasonably assure the person's appearance.

b. Before Conviction; Persons Charged With an Offense Not Bailable as a Matter of Right. A person shall not be released on bail if the court finds the person is not bailable pursuant to A.R.S. Const. Art. 2, § 22 and A.R.S. § 13-3961. If the allegation involves A.R.S. § 13-3961(A)(5), the person shall not be considered bailable if the court finds (1) that the proof is evident or the presumption great that the person committed a serious offense, and (2) probable cause that the person entered or remained in the United States illegally.

ħ c. After Conviction

(1) Superior Court. After a person has been convicted of any offense for which the person will in all reasonable probability suffer a sentence of imprisonment, the person shall not be released on bail or on the person's own recognizance unless it is established that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the conviction may be set aside on a motion for new trial, reversed on appeal, or vacated in any post-conviction proceeding. The release of a person pending appeal shall be revoked if the person fails to prosecute the appeal diligently.

(2) Limited Jurisdiction Courts.

(A) Conditions of Release Upon Appeal. After a defendant has been convicted of any offense for which a sentence of incarceration has been imposed, upon filing of a timely notice of appeal, the defendant shall remain, pending appeal, under the same release conditions imposed at or subsequent to the time of the defendant's initial appearance or arraignment, except as provided in this subsection (c) (2). The release of the defendant pending appeal shall be revoked if the defendant fails to prosecute the appeal diligently. A defendant held in custody pending appeal shall be released in the event the defendant's sentence is completed before the appeal has been decided.

(B) Motion to Amend Conditions of Release. Upon the filing of a timely notice of appeal, the state, or the court on its own motion, may move to amend the conditions of release when it appears there is a substantial risk that:

- (i) the defendant presents a danger to any person or the community; or
- (ii) the defendant is unlikely to return to court if subsequently ordered to appear on the particular matter.

(C) Hearing. The court shall set a hearing on such an application within three days of the filing of the motion. Such hearing may be continued for good cause shown. The defendant may be detained pending the hearing. At the hearing, which shall be on the record, the defendant is entitled to representation by counsel. Any testimony of the defendant shall not be admissible in other proceedings except as it may relate to compliance with prior conditions of release, perjury, or impeachment.

(D) Findings. Based on findings stated on the record, the court may amend the conditions of release in accordance with Rule 7.3. In determining the method of release or the amount of bail, the judicial officer shall, on the basis of available information, consider the nature and circumstances of the offense, family or local ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of residence in the community, the record of arrests, convictions, and appearances at court proceedings.

(E) Superior Court Review. If the trial court enters an order setting a bond or requiring incarceration while the appeal is taken, the defendant may petition the superior court, at any time after such order is entered, to stay the execution of sentence and to allow the defendant to be released without bond or to require a lower bond.

e d. Burden of Proof. Issues under Rules 7.2 (a) and (c) shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence. The prosecutor shall bear the burden of establishing factual issues under Rule 7.2 (a), (b) and (c) (2). The defendant shall bear the burden of establishing factual issues under Rule 7.2 (c) (1).

Rule 7.4. Procedure

a. Initial Decision. At the initial appearance before a magistrate, a determination of the conditions of release shall be made. The court shall issue an order containing the conditions of release and shall inform the accused of the conditions, the possible consequences of their violation, and that a warrant for his or her arrest may be issued immediately upon report of a violation.

b. Subsequent Review of Conditions. Any party may move for reexamination of the conditions of release whenever the case is transferred to a different court or the motion alleges the existence of material facts not previously presented to the court. The court may, on motion of any party, or on its own initiative, modify the conditions of release after giving the parties an opportunity to respond to the proposed modification. The motion shall comply with the requirements of this rule, Rule 35 and Rule 39. If the motion involves whether the person shall be held without bail, a hearing on the motion shall be held on the record as soon as practicable but not later than seven days after filing of the motion.

c. Evidence. Release determinations under this rule may be based on evidence not admissible under the rules of evidence.

d. Review of Bond. The court before which a misdemeanor is pending shall, no more than 10 days after arraignment, review the case file concerning the conditions of release of any defendant held in custody on bond for the purpose of determining the propriety of amending the conditions of release.

Rule 27.7. Initial appearance after arrest

When a probationer is arrested on a warrant issued under Rule 27.5 (b), his or her probation officer, if any, shall be notified immediately, and the probationer shall be taken without unreasonable delay before the court from which the warrant was issued, who shall advise the probationer of his or her rights to counsel under Rule 6, inform the probationer that any statement he or she makes prior to the hearing may be used against him or her, set the date of the revocation hearing, and make a release determination under Rule 7.2 (c).

Rule 31.6. Stay of execution of sentence and credit pending appeal

A sentence of imprisonment shall be stayed pending appeal when the defendant is released in accordance with Rule 7.2 (c). A defendant who remains in custody during the pendency of an appeal shall receive the same benefits as if no appeal has been taken.

A sentence to pay a fine shall be stayed pending appeal.
